

Civil No. 08-1039 (GAG)(JA)

2

1 deprivation remedy.

2 In response to Judge McGiverin's report and recommendation (Docket No. 159), plaintiffs
3 filed timely objections (Docket No. 160), arguing: (1) that plaintiffs' Takings Claim is ripe since
4 there is no identifiable process aimed at providing compensation; (2) that there is a genuine factual
5 issue as to defendants' conduct preventing dismissal of plaintiffs' claims; and (3) that equity and
6 fairness go against dismissal of plaintiffs' claims.

7 After conducting a de novo review, the Court finds that plaintiffs' objections are without
8 merit, and ADOPTS in its entirety Magistrate Judge McGiverin's comprehensive and extremely
9 well-reasoned report and recommendation (Docket No. 159).

10 Accordingly, the Court GRANTS defendants' motion for summary judgment as to the 11 federal claims. (Docket Nos. 66, 114). The supplemental state-law claims are dismissed without 12 prejudice.

13 SO ORDERED.

14 In San Juan, Puerto Rico this 9th day of June, 2009.
